SUMMARY

Creative and results-oriented student currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Languages and Multilingualism, with a strong passion for fostering creativity, self-expression, and personal development through both artistic and educational initiatives. As the founder and lead facilitator of Agapi Art Club, I have organized and led over 30 creative workshops, working with children, teenagers, and adults in both English and Russian. Through these experiences, I developed strong skills in planning and adapting creative sessions to different age groups, ensuring a supportive and engaging environment for all participants. Combining my organizational, communication, and leadership abilities with my passion for languages and the arts, I am eager to contribute to fostering creativity and developing language skills in students through interactive and inclusive learning experiences.
